ACCELERATED BACCALAUREATE PROGRAM:

This program allows a select group of students to compress or accelerate their degree program. Students chosen for admission into this program have recognized academic proficiencies warranting reductions in general education and elective credit requirements resulting in reduction of the university's standard 180 credit hour baccalaureate degree requirement. Accelerated Baccalaureate students must take a minimum of 135 credit hours in residence at the university. Credits earned through approved exchange programs may be counted toward this minimum. All department major requirements also must be completed in residence.

Through Summer 1990.

Credit not applicable toward a degree

50-99 Credit courses applicable toward a degree but of a basic, preparatory, sub-freshman level through 1981-82. Since Fall 1982, credit not applicable toward a degree

100-299 Undergraduate lower division courses

Undergraduate upper division courses. 400-level courses with a 'G' after the letter grade or after the 300-499

course number, carry graduate credit

500-599 Graduate level courses

700 In-service courses, not applicable toward a degree

Beginning Fall 1990...

Credit not applicable toward a degree 100-299 Undergraduate lower division courses 300-499 Undergraduate upper division courses 500-599 Graduate level courses

Beginning Fall 1997...

800-899 In-service courses. May be counted toward a master's degree with approval of the graduate

REPEATED COURSES:

For non-repeatable courses, only the most recent credits and grade will be computed in institutional and cumulative GPA regardless of earlier grades. Starting with Summer 1990, repeated courses will include 'I' or 'E' codes in the column labeled 'R'. An 'I' indicates the credits and quality points were included. An 'E' indicates the credits and quality points were excluded. Excluded courses are not applicable toward a degree.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Additional information may be obtained from the current university catalog or from Enrollment Services.
